1. Come, ye faithful saints of Zion! Praise the Lord with heart and voice,
   Singing hymns of acclamation. Come, let ev'ry soul rejoice!
   Hope and joy in Christ our Master; Faith and works, great blessings bring.
   Share His truth with all the world And proclaim Him Lord and King.

2. In His hands our lives are trusted. In His arms we'll feel His love.
   In His name we'll serve with honour, Pleasing our Father in Heav'n above.
   Finding strength as we endeavour, His commandments, to obey.
   May our hearts be humble now In our efforts day by day.

3. Watch for the day when Christ returns His judgment upon the nations of earth.
   Then shall the wicked fear and tremble, Then shall the Lord, His saints, preserve.
   Every ear shall hear His coming, Ev'ry tongue confess His name,
   Every knee shall bow before Our King for e'er to reign.

4. Unto Him we come and worship, Grateful for the life He gave.
   Conquering death, the pathway opened; Christ our Saviour leads the way.
   Saints of Zion, raise your voices, Let hosannas' chorus ring.
   Praise His name forevermore; Our Redeemer, Lord and King.

4. When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not thee o'erflow,
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

5. When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all sufficient, shall be thy supply.
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume and thy gold to refine.

6. E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove
My sov'reign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And then, when grey hair shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs shall they still in my bosom be borne.

7. The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose
I will not, I cannot, desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavour to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!
4. When through the deep waters I call thee to go, The rivers of sorrow shall not thee o'erflow, For I will be with thee, thy

1. God's faithful promises are sure, Afford us life and vital pow'r;
2. His holy word, we strive to live, What consolations will it give!
3. No greater blessings can be known, No greater mercies can be shown,
4. O let us then with patience wait, God's promises are sure and great:

Our aid, our comfort, trust and hope In all afflictions bears us up.
True peace and joy the humble mind In these bless'd promises shall find.
When, through obedience to His word, We prove our trust in Christ the Lord.
His gifts and blessings from above Will fill our hearts with joy and love.

Great is the Lord

Joyfully \( \frac{\text{d}}{\text{d}} = 134 \)

1. Great is the Lord; 'tis good to praise His high and holy name.
2. The Comforter is sent again; His pow'r the Church attends,
3. We'll praise him for a prophet's voice, His people's steps to guide;
4. To praise him let us all engage, For unto us is given

Well may the Saints in latter days His wondrous love proclaim.
And with the faithful will remain Till Jesus Christ descends.
In this we do and will rejoice, Tho all the world decide.
To live in this momentous age And share the light of heav'n.

From All That Dwell Below the Skies

1. From all that dwell below the skies, Let the Creator's praise arise; Let the Redeemer's name be sung Through every land, by every tongue.

2. In every land begin the song; To every land, the strains belong. In cheerful sounds all voices raise And fill the world with loudest praise.

3. Your loftiest themes, ye mortals, bring; In songs of praise every tongue proclaim, And shout for joy the Saviour's name.

4. Eter nal are thy mercies, Lord; Etern al tend your word. Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till suns shall rise and set no more.

1. Still with Thee, O my Lord, I would desire to be.
2. With Thee, when dawn comes in And calls me back to care,
3. With Thee, amid the crowd That throngs the busy mart,
4. With Thee, when day is done, And evening calms the mind.

By day, by night, at home, abroad, I would be still with Thee.
Each day returning to begin With Thee, my Lord, in prayer.
To hear Thy voice, mid clamour loud, Speak softly to my heart.
The setting, as the rising sun, With Thee my heart would find.

5. With Thee, when darkness brings The signal of repose,
   Calm in the shadow of Thy wings,
   Mine eyelids I would close.
6. With Thee, in Thee, by faith Abiding, I would be;
   By day, by night, in life, in death,
   I would be still with Thee.
1. Father, I kneel in solemn communion, Quietly, calming thoughts turn to Thee.

2. Though it may seem that darkness surrounds me, Though I may wander,

3. Though I feel weak and trials confound me, Though I may doubt my efforts each day,

   Search-ing for answers, finding my way, In stumbling and fall,

   Strength-en me, guide me, show me the way, For softly, the Spirit whispers to me; My need of Thy guidance; humbly I pray.

   Test-ing my faith, I give me my errors. Help me, I pray.

   Foll'wing my Sav-iour, strivings have brought me closer to Thee. E'er shall I seek and reach out to Thee. My Sav iour is call ing: "Come, Follow Me."

I shall not hide. There's noth ing I fear with Him by my side.

1. Lord, we come before thee now; At thy feet we humbly bow.

2. Send some message from thy word That may joy and peace afford.

Do not thou our suit disdain: Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

Comfort those who weep and mourn: Let the time of love return.

Take My Life and Let it Be

Lyrics by Frances Ridley Havergal (1836 – 1879)
Music by Andrew Moore

1. Take my life and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to thee.
2. Take my hands and let them move At the impulse of thy love.
3. Take my voice and let me sing Always, only, for my King.
4. Take my silver and my gold; Not a mite would I withhold.

5. Take my moments and my days; Let them flow in endless praise.
Take my feet and let them be Swift and beautiful for thee.
Take my lips and let them be Filled with messages from thee.
Take my intellect and use Every pow’r as thou shalt choose.

6. Take my love; my Lord, I pour At thy feet its treasure store.
Take my heart it is thine own; Take myself, and I will be
It shall be thy royal throne. Ever, only, all for thee.

1. God is in his holy temple. Earthly thoughts, be silent now,

2. God is in his holy temple, In the pure and holy mind,

While with reverence we assemble And before his presence bow.

In the reverent heart and simple, In the soul from sin refined.

He is with us, now and ever, When we call upon his name,

Banish then each base emotion. Lift us up, O Lord, to thee;

Aiding every good endeavor, Guiding every upward aim.

Let our souls, in pure devotion, Temples for thy worship be.
1. From God, the Source of life and grace, Our streams of blessings flow;
2. Thou God of truth and righteousness, In faith we ask of Thee,
3. Here let thy holy Spirit rest Without a chain to bind:
4. Where love and duty mark the way, Improving heart and head,
5. O God, our strength — our great reward, Speed Thou, the glorious time

This day, His holy name we praise And grateful thanks bestow.
Preserve this humble edifice From all impurity.
May all who enter in, be blest In body and in mind.
Ever onward, upward, day by day, We'll move with tireless tread.
When "Holiness unto the Lord," Shall mark each grand design.

This Night, O Lord, We Bless Thee

1. This night, O Lord, we bless Thee For Thy protecting care,
   And ere we rest, address Thee In lowly, fervent prayer:
   From evil and temptation Defend us through the night,
   And round our habitation Be Thou a wall of light.

2. On Thee our whole reliance From day to day we cast,
   To Thee with firm assurance Would cleave from first to last;
   To Thee, through Jesus' merit, For needful grace we come,
   And trust that Thy good Spirit will guide us safely home.

3. What may be on the morrow Our foresight cannot see;
   But be it joy or sorrow, We know it comes from Thee.
   And nothing can take from us, Where'er our steps may move,
   The staff of Thy sure promise, The shield of Thy true love.

From the poem "Master, Say On", by Frances Ridley Havergal
1. O Thou whose sacred feet have trod
   The thorny path of woe

2. Give me the spirit of Thy trust
   To suffer as a son,

3. May none depart till I have gained
   The blessing which it bears,

Forbid that I should slight the rod,
Or faint beneath the blow.
To say, though lying in the dust, “My Father’s will be done!”
And learned, though late, I entertained An angel unaware.

My spirit to its chastening stroke
I meekly would resign,
I know that trial works for ends
Too high for sense to trace,
So shall I bless the hour that sent
The mercy of the rod.

Nor murmur at the heaviest yoke
That tells me I am Thine.
That oft in dark attire He sends Some embassy of grace.
And built an altar by the tents Where I have met with God.

Dear Saviour, Be There For Me - 2

Ever my comfort, Thy presence shall be. Never forsake me when darkness I see; I ask Thee dear Saviour, be there for me.
Follow Me, In Me Ye Live

1. Follow me, in me ye live, What ye ask I freely give,
   On - ly heed ye lest ye stray, Follow me, in me ye live.

2. Yea, Lord, meet it is indeed We should all thy bidding give,
   Who in fear of this earth's blame, Counts Thy will, in me ye live.

3. Where is strength, Lord, to fulfil, Glad at heart, Thy works and be;
   Foll'wing on where Thou hast trod? All too low - ly yoke a shame,

4. Yet I will not turn from Thee, Yet my joy in Christ shall be;
   Help me, make me strong and bold, Firm and fast Thy grace to hold;

Follow Me, In Me Ye Live - 2

5. Thou hast gone before us, Lord,
Not with anger, strife, or sword,
Not with kingly pomp and pride,
But with mercy at Thy side.
Moved by wondrous love divine
For our life Thou gavest Thine,
And Thy precious outpoured blood,
Won for us the highest good.

6. Let us follow in such sort,
Christ-like every deed and thought,
That Thy love most true and kind
All our hearts henceforth may bind;
None may look behind him now,
Who to Christ hath pledged his vow;
Jesus leads, no longer stand,
Follow me, is His command.

7. Draw me up, my God, from hence,
Raise me high o'er earth and sense,
That I lose not Thee from sight,
Nor in life nor death, my Light!
In my soul's most deep recess
Let me cherish holiness,
Not for show or human praise,
But for Thy sake, all my days.

8. Grant me, Lord, my heart's desire,
So my course to run nor tire,
That my practised soul may prove
What Thy meekness, what Thy love.
Grant me here to trust Thy grace,
There with joy to see Thy face,
This in time my portion be,
That through all eternity!
1. Though troubles as sail us and dangers af fright;
2. The birds, without garner or storehouse, are fed;
3. When Satan as sails us to stop up our path,
4. No strength of our own and no goodness we claim;

Though friends should all fail us and foes all unite,
From them let us learn to trust God for our bread.
And courage all fails us, we triumph by faith.
Yet, since we have known of the Saviour's great name,

Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied
He cannot take from us, though oft he has tried,
In this our strong tower for safety we hide:

The promise assures us: "The Lord will provide."
So long as 'tis written, "The Lord will provide."
This heart-cheering promise, "The Lord will provide."
The Lord is our power, "The Lord will provide."

Music by Andrew Moore

3. That glorious rest will then commence Which prophets did foretell,

Ere long her King will rend the skies, Majestic and divine,
Go spread the news from pole to pole In all the nations round:
When Saints will reign with Christ on earth, And in his presence dwell

The gospel spreading thru the land, A people to prepare
That Jesus in the clouds above, With hosts of angels too,
A thousand years, oh, glorious day! Dear Lord, prepare my heart

Glorious Things Are Sung of Zion

Lyrics by William W. Phelps (1792-1872)
Music by Andrew Moore

1. Glorious things are sung of Zion, Enoch's city seen of old,
   Where the righteous, being perfect, Walked with God in streets of gold.
   Love and virtue, faith and wisdom, Grace and gifts were all combined.
   As himself each loved his neighbour; All were one in heart and mind.

2. There they shunn'd the pow' of Satan And observed celestial laws;
   For in Adam ondi Ahman Zion rose where Eden was.
   When beyond the pow'r of evil, So that none could covet wealth,
   One continual feast of blessings Crown'd their days with peace and health.

3. Then the tow'rs of Zion glittered Like the sun in yonder skies,
   And the wick-ed stood and trembled, Filled with wonder and surprise.
   Then their faith and works were perfect; Lo, they followed their great Head!
   So the city went to heaven, And the world said, "Zion's fled!"

4. When the Lord returns with Zion, And we hear the watchman cry,
   Then we'll surely be united, And we'll all see eye to eye.
   Then we'll mingle with the angels, And the Lord will bless his own.
   Then the earth will be as Eden, And we'll know as we are known.

1. Ye elders of Israel, come join now with me And seek out the righ-teous, wher-e'er they may be In desert, on moun-tain, on land, or on sea And bring them to Zi-on, the pure and the free. Bab-y-lon, O Bab-y-lon, we bid thee fare-well; We're going to the moun-tains of Ephraim to dwell.

2. The har-vest is great, and the la-b'ers are few; But if we're un-nit-ed, we all things can do. We'll gath-er the wheat from the midst of the tares And bring them from bond-age, from sor-rows and snares. O Bab-y-lon, O Bab-y-lon, O

3. We'll go to the poor, like our Cap-tain of old, And vis-it the wea-ry, the hun-gry, and cold; We'll cheer up their hearts with the news that he bore And point them to Zi-on and life ev-er-more. Men's choir (TTBB) versions also available for download from www.LDSmusicalitems.co.uk

1. Go, ye messengers of heaven, Chosen by divine command;
   When your thousands all are gathered, And their prayers for you ascend,
   Go and publish free salvation To a dark, benighted land.
   Go to island, vale, and mountain; There fulfill the great command;
   Gather out the sons of Jacob To possess the promised land.

2. All the labours of your hand,
   And the Lord has crowned with blessings
   Then the song of joy and transport Will from every land resound;
   Then the nations long in darkness By the Saviour will be crowned.

1. Rejoice! A glorious sound is heard In triumph of the right.
2. And down the ages, on and on, In increasing ev'ry hour.
3. Arise and sing, ye sons of men; All praise and honour give.

As Zion's youth, in league with truth, Go forth in wondrous might.
In loyalty and faith we go, In honour, grace, and pow'r.
Arise and sing to His great name, Who died that we might live.

We raise our voice in loyal shout, A great exultant cry:
The Light of Light, God's torch of truth, As beacon points the way.
On Zion's hill, in strength and might, Send forth a joyous strain:

Jeovah reigns! Lord God of Hosts, All hail thee, King most high.
To endless glory, kingdoms great, In realms of perfect day.
In triumph over sin and strife, With him in glory reign.

1. Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God!

2. See! the streams of living waters, Springing from celestial love,

3. Blest inhabitants of Zion, Purchased by the Saviour's blood;

He whose word cannot be broken Chose thee for his own abode.
Well supply thy sons and daughters And all fear of drought remove.
Jesus, whom their souls rely on, Makes them kings and priests to God.

On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake our sure repose?
Round each habitation hov'ring, See the cloud and fire appear.
While in love his Saints he raises, With himself to reign as King.

With salvation's wall surrounded, Thou may'st smile on all thy foes.
For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near.
All, as priests, his solemn praises For thank-off'rings freely bring.

Father, God of All Creation

Text and Music by Andrew Moore

1. Father, God of all creation, Thou whose wondrous works unfold,
   Stretching forth in radiant splendor, 'Cross the universe untold.
   Light where once was darkest void, Life's abundance now enjoyed.
   Beauty in Thine earthly gardens, We Thy children now behold.

2. For est glades and fields of color, Lowly vale and mountain tall,
   Morning dawn and glorious sunset, Summer, winter, spring and fall,
   Deepest oceans, highest plains, Warming sun and cooling rains,
   Ev'ry tree and flower growing; Testimony of Thy love.

3. Ev'ry fish that swims the ocean, Ev'ry bird that skyward flies,
   Every creature great and humble; Glories Thy grand designs.
   Here on earth for us to share, Lovingly we'll tend and care.
   Ev'ry life a precious wonder, Ev'ry birth a gift from Thee.

4. Sun and moon and stars in heaven, Time and space To Thee are known.
   Mansions, kingdoms, spheres exalted, Endless worlds to call Thine own.
   Each with purpose, Thou hast planned, Nurtured by Thy pow'ful hand.
   This, Thy work and glory be! Our path to immor tality.

Lord, We Meet on This Thy Sabbath

Lyrics and Music
Andrew Moore

Earnestly $d = 108$

1. Lord, we meet on this Thy Sabbath, Saints assembled near and far,
   Hearts and voices sing for joy As we seek Thy guiding pow'r.
   We'll hearken to the Lord's anointed, Hearken to the counsel giv'n,
   Strength through faith and righteousness, May our souls receive this day.

2. Following the Spirit's promptings, Unto Thee we come prepared;
   Inspiration from above Through the pow'r of fast and prayer.
   We'll hearken to the Lord's anointed, Hearken to the counsel giv'n,
   Strength through faith and righteousness, May our souls receive this day.

3. Let Thy will and word be spoken, Let Thy servants testify
   Of Thy love and hope for us In our search for truth and light.
   We'll hearken to the Lord's anointed, Hearken to the counsel giv'n,
   Strength through faith and righteousness, May our souls receive this day.

4. May Thy message, pure and sacred, Touch our lives and lift the soul;
   Wisdom shared throughout the world, For Thy love extends to all.
   We'll hearken to the Lord's anointed, Hearken to the counsel giv'n,
   Strength through faith and righteousness, May our souls receive this day.

We Meet Again in Sabbath School

Joyfully  \( \text{d} = 116 \)

1. We meet again in Sabbath School On this the Lord's own day,
2. We meet again, yes, gladly meet, To learn the will of God,
3. Oh, happy day on which we meet With friends and teachers dear,

Where joyful gladness is the rule, And love doth bear its sway;
For wisdom seeking, that our feet May walk the narrow road.
And in this ever sweet retreat Their blessed teachings hear;

Where all may join in songs of praise To him who reigns above,
O Father, let thy Spirit dwell In every willing heart,
With precious truths our minds are stored, The gospel plan made plain.

And thankful hearts and voices raise For his redeeming love.
That we may love and serve thee well And ne'er from thee depart.
Each Sabbath day, with one accord, Oh, let us meet again.

The House of the Lord

Reverently $\bullet = 80$

1. Come, ye Saints, to the House of the Lord; a place of love and beauty
2. Enter into the House of the Lord and feel the Holy Spirit,
3. There within the House of the Lord, eternal work progresses;
4. Come again to the House of the Lord; a sacred place of worship.

On holy ground, with peace surrounding ev'ry faithful soul within.
Where truth and light may whisper brightly in the hearts of all who seek
The offer of salvation's hand to generations gone before.
We'll follow in His footsteps, in the paths of righteousness and peace.

The temple walls stand firm and true; Divine protection from all worldly view.
The heavenly knowledge, there bestowed; Our Father's promised blessings to unfold.
Through holy Priesthood sealing pow'r, Our family shall unite for evermore.
A covenant people we shall be, As one with Christ* through all eternity.

Christmas
1. It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old,
   From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
   "Peace on the earth, good will to men From heav'n's all-gracious King."
   The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

2. Still thru the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled,
   And still their heav'nly music floats O'er all the weary world.
   Above its sad and lowly plains They bend on hovering wing,
   And ever o'er its babble sounds The blessed angels sing.

3. For lo! the days are hast'ning on, By prophets seen of old,
   When with the ever-circling years Shall come the time foretold,
   When the new heav'n and earth shall own The Prince of Peace their King,
   And the whole world send back the song Which now the angels sing.
1. While shepherds watch’d their flocks by night, All seated on the ground,
2. “To you, in David’s town this day, Is born of David’s line
3. Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith Appeared a shining throng

The angel of the Lord came down, And glory shone around.
The Saviour who is Christ the Lord, And this shall be the sign:
Of angels praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:

“Fear not,” said he, for mightily dread Had seized their troubled mind;
The heav’ly Babe you there shall find To human view displayed,
“All glory be to God on high And on the earth be peace.

“Glad tidings of great joy I bring To you and all mankind.”
All meanly wrapped in swaddling bands, And in a manger laid.”
Good will henceforth from heav’n to men Begin and never cease.”

What Child Is This

Music by Andrew Moore
Lyrics by William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898)

1. What Child is this, who, laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping?
2. Why lies He in such mean estate, Where ox and ass are feeding?
3. So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh, Come, peasant, king to own Him.

Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?
Good Christian, fear: for sinners here The silent Word is pleading.
The King of kings salvation brings; Let loving hearts en throne Him.

This, this is Christ, the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:

Haste, haste to bring Him laud, The Babe, the Son of Mary!

1. O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie.
2. For Christ is born of Mary, And, gathered all above.
3. How silently, how silently The wondrous gift is given!

Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by;
While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wondering love.
So God imparts to human hearts The blessings of his heav'n.

Yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting Light.
O morning stars, together Proclaim the holy birth,
No ear may hear his coming: But in this world of sin.

The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee tonight.
And praises sing to God the King, And peace to men on earth.
Where meek souls will receive him, still The dear Christ enters in.
